Office Of The Inspector General
$47,200 – $66,600

Baltimore City Office of The Inspector General is seeking results-oriented professionals for investigation of fraud, waste and abuse within City Government.

INSPECTOR GENERAL AGENT

The individual in this role will conduct complex investigations. Must have at least a bachelor degree and five years of investigative experience. Must have completed the Basic Criminal Investigator Training course at FLETC or equivalent training. A CFE designation can be substituted for the investigator training. Individuals must have strong communications, analytical, interpersonal, organizational and problem-solving skills. Must have some knowledge of auditing procedures and be able to recognize internal control weaknesses.

INSPECTOR GENERAL EVALUATOR

The individuals in this role will conduct internal audit reviews and investigations of City of Baltimore programs and operations to evaluate internal controls, compliance with established policies and procedures and recommending control or procedural improvements. Must have strong communications, analytical, interpersonal, organizational and problem-solving skills. Must have at least a bachelor degree and five years of internal auditing and investigative experience or certification as CIA, CPA, CFE, and CISA.

Baltimore City Government offers a competitive salary, commensurate with education and experience and a full range of comprehensive benefits, including medical, dental, vision, deferred compensation, paid leave and retirement plan.

Selected individuals must pass a drug screening and background investigation. Interested candidates should submit a cover memo and resume, which specifically addresses the experience relevant to this position to:

Office Of The Inspector General
100 N. Holliday Street
Suite 640 – City Hall
Baltimore, Maryland, 21202
Facsimile: 410-837-1033
Hilton.green@baltimorecity.gov

Relocation Assistance is not available

This is a Non-Civil Service position

Baltimore City is an Equal Opportunity Employer